

Title21 Health Solutions Is a “Great Place to Work”®

Cellular Therapy and Enterprise Quality Management Software Company is Recognized as Having an Outstanding Culture by Great Place to Work®

January 30, 2019 [Pleasanton, Calif.] – Title21 Health Solutions, ‘Title21’, a provider of Cloud Enterprise Quality Management Systems (EQMS) and Cell and Gene Therapy Software was certified by independent analysts as a ‘Great Place to Work.’ Headquartered in the San Francisco Bay Area, Title21 earned this certification by anonymous employee ratings focused on company culture, work-life balance, communication, benefits and leadership.

According to the 2019 Great Place to Work® survey, Title21 employees reported that the company provides many career advancement opportunities and management knows how to effectively lead. Survey responses show that Title21’s Management values employee ideas and offers exciting opportunities for career growth. Title21’s positive work culture also offers fully stocked kitchens, catered lunches, employee celebrations, outdoor walking meetings, paid internships, one-on-one lunches with the CEO, but most importantly, cutting-edge career opportunities in the promising segment of Cellular Therapy and Regenerative Medicine. This dynamic environment prioritizes the well-being of its employees to deliver the company’s mission of improving patient quality and helping to advance curative therapies.

“Our company culture is paramount to the excellent technology and outstanding customer service that we deliver to our healthcare customers. Every Title21 employee is passionate about the work and wants to make a difference in improving patient quality, safety and care. When you serve the top healthcare institutions in the nation, excellence is what is expected,” states Lynn Fischer, Co-Founder and CEO of Title21.
